PERSONAL CONVEYANCE DEVICE USE AND PARKING

In accordance with provisions of Section 4326 of Title 14, California Code of Regulations, for the protection of the health and safety of persons, property, and resources within the lands and facilities of Capital District State Park Units regulations for the use and parking are hereby established:

Definitions:

A "Personal Conveyance Device" (PCD) for the purposes of this order is defined as a device intended for transportation of one's person or property, with one or more wheels, operated by human propulsion or completely or partially assisted by an electric or gasoline motor. A PCD does not include a manually operated or power-driven device designed primarily for use by an individual with a mobility disability or a child, that is actively being used for the aid of a child or person with a mobility disability.

Capital District Personal Conveyance Device Regulations:

- (a) No person shall take a PCD into a Capital District lavatory.
- (b) No person shall park a PCD or towed object on any walkway or boardwalk, as to adversely affect safe or normal passage.
- (c) PCD's improperly parked may be removed and stored by Capital District State Park Peace Officers by cutting and removing a locking device, when necessary, per CCC § 2080.1 and 2080.7 respectively.
- (d) PCD's parked on disability access ramps will be removed and stored as above by Capital District State Park Peace Officers or designees.
- (e) No person shall ride a PCD on a boardwalk. All PCD's will be dismounted and walked through these areas; pedestrians have the right of way on boardwalks and walkways.
- (f) Per CCR T 14 4326(a) 670-24-009 the parking lot of the California State Railroad Museum at 125 I Street in Old Sacramento State Historic Park is closed to all persons except authorized personnel. No person shall ride a PCD through said parking lot.
- (g) No vehicle subject to registration under § 4000 or listed under § 38006 of the California Vehicle Code may be operated or left standing within any unit of the Capital District without authorization from the Department on official business. This section does not apply to permitted vehicles in Capital District designated off-street parking facilities.

Exceptions to this order may be granted in writing by the District Superintendent or designee, Capital District, 101 J Street, Sacramento, CA 95814.

Nothing herein shall affect any existing private contract or property rights.
